

TEAM 1

Your team will be making a presentation on “How to Make a Presentation.” The person who delivers your presentation should use an “folksy” style. Begin by developing three key points about how to present to a group. Then determine how you will incorporate the evangelical style into the delivery. You should have an opening and close to the presentation, and the evangelical style should be used throughout. Choose a presenter who can effectively demonstrate that style and implement your team’s plan.

You have 15 minutes to prepare your presentation.

TEAM 2

Your team will be making a presentation on “How to Make a Presentation.” The person who delivers your presentation should use an “evangelical” style. Begin by developing three key points about how to present to a group. Then determine how you will incorporate the evangelical style into the delivery. You should have an opening and close to the presentation, and the evangelical style should be used throughout. Choose a presenter who can effectively demonstrate that style and implement your team’s plan.

You have 15 minutes to prepare your presentation.

TEAM 3

Your team will be making a presentation on “How to Make a Presentation.” The person who delivers your presentation should use a “quiet” style. Begin by developing three key points about how to present to a group. Then determine how you will incorporate the quiet/caring style into the delivery. You should have an opening and close to the presentation, and the quiet/caring style should be used throughout. Choose a presenter who can effectively demonstrate that style and implement your team’s plan.

You have 15 minutes to prepare your presentation.

TEAM 4

Your team will be making a presentation on “How to Make a Presentation.” The person who delivers your presentation should use a “friendly/familiar” style. Begin by developing three key points about how to present to a group. Then determine how you will incorporate the friendly/familiar style into the delivery. You should have an opening and close to the presentation, and the friendly/familiar style should be used throughout. Choose a presenter who can effectively demonstrate that style and implement your team’s plan.

You have 15 minutes to prepare your presentation.

TEAM 5

Your team will be making a presentation on “How to Make a Presentation.” The person who delivers your presentation should use a “professorial” style. Begin by developing three key points about how to present to a group. Then determine how you will incorporate the professorial style into the delivery. You should have an opening and close to the presentation, and the professorial style should be used throughout. Choose a presenter who can effectively demonstrate that style and implement your team’s plan.

You have 15 minutes to prepare your presentation.

TEAM 6

Your team will be making a presentation on “How to Make a Presentation.” The person who delivers your presentation should use a “formal/serious” style. Begin by developing three key points about how to present to a group. Then determine how you will incorporate the formal/serious style into the delivery. You should have an opening and close to the presentation, and the formal/serious style should be used throughout. Choose a presenter who can effectively demonstrate that style and implement your team’s plan.

You have 15 minutes to prepare your presentation.